About us

My Word Speech Therapy is an established practice that provides Speech Pathology services to paediatric clients in Albury and surrounds. My Word Speech Therapy strives to deliver high-quality services that meet the needs of individual clients and their families. We work closely with schools, paediatricians, NDIS partners, and other health professionals to ensure a holistic team approach.

The role

We are expanding our service to include Occupational Therapy services and have an exciting new position available. As a paediatric Occupational Therapist, you will be responsible for treating clients aged between 0 - 18 years. You will be required to manage a full-time caseload with the support of regular, discipline-specific supervision. Clients that attend our clinic can be private clients or NDIS participants. Experience working with NDIS participants is desired.

Essential criteria

- Bachelor of Occupational Therapy or equivalent
- Current professional registration with AHPRA
- A full drivers license and own car
- Current NSW and VIC Working with Children Check and national police check
- First Aid Certificate
- NDIS Mandatory Worker Training
- Demonstrated experience providing Occupational Therapy assessment and intervention with paediatric clients
- Sound oral and written communication skills
- Excellent time management skills
- Ability to problem solve
- Willingness to learn and add value to a team environment

The benefits

- Flexible working environment
- Excellent supervision and mentoring
- Job security
- Supportive team, including administration
- Provision of a laptop, mobile phone, own office, and necessary tools of the trade

Location

Albury Wodonga is at the heart of the NSW and VIC border and provides a great community and hub for its residents and those living in surrounding towns. With close proximity to the Murray River, Hume Weir, and ski fields, it's a great place to live.
